You can elect to have this income subject to the earnings tax by entering the income under column B. If you enter the interest income under column B, be sure to also include such income in the earnings tax section on page 3, part B of the return to avoid any discrepancies on your tax return.

If you enter the rental income under column B, be sure to also include such income in the earnings tax section to avoid any discrepancies on your tax return.

Line 22a

Combine the amounts in lines 7 through 21b in each of the columns (A, B, and C) and enter each column's total.

Line 22b

Make the percentage allocation of your income on line 22a by dividing the total in each column (A and B) by the total in column C.

Example: Percentage allocation for line 22b, column A
